FROM THE PASTOR

This past Sunday, in the Adult Bible Studies used by three of our Sunday school classes, were some remarks about the difference between telling someone that you are thinking about them as opposed to telling someone you are praying for them.

This quarter's lessons are written by Rev. Robert V. Dodd and this is what he wrote: "Thinking about someone may convey our sympathy and best wishes for this person. But praying for someone acknowledges our faith in God and our belief that God can and will intervene in that person's life."

I think this is a profound statement, and as you can tell it is still influencing me, so I thought I'd share it with those in our Aldersgate community who read the Flame.

Peace and Grace,
Brother Paul

Many thanks to Perry Wilson for tuning our church pianos. It's a long and tedious job. We appreciate his sharing his time and talent to help us "make a joyful noise unto the Lord".

ART FOR LIFE'S SAKE SEEKS BOARD MEMBERS

AFLS is seeking 3 new board members for the coming season. Interested individuals should contact the director at 901-240-3349 (cell) or 901-685-8126.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Freedom is more than a condition.
It's also a challenge. Are you up to it?

UMW NEWS

Between attending CMEE, recovering from 3 surgeries and preparing for our study on the Epistles of John, it had slipped my mind that we must have our scrapbook ready for District Annual Meeting in September. Please give me any correspondence, pictures of your group and any other UMW activities, copies of programs or activities outside our Unit, and any other items suitable for our scrapbook.

And, remember, we will soon need our group picture made for the District.

We lack only one goal to be a Platinum Unit - gaining one new member. There are pamphlets in the UMW Room on membership and 20 questions about UMW. Pick some up for your group and to give to prospective members.

So far, we have heard from seven churches who plan to attend our study on John. If you know women from other churches, please encourage them to come August 24 and 31 from 10 to 12. Please emphasize that the study is not just for United Methodist Women but for anyone interested in learning more about the Bible.

Soon we will be asking for your help. Our first display will be Bibles of different translations.

Please check the list for other items. Place your gifts in the BIG backpack outside the church office or bring them to the Pot Luck lunch on August 15.
