FROM THE PASTOR

Many of you know I like to golf, and this year I have played some of the best golf of my life. When you play well it makes the game so much more enjoyable, yet you realistically know, sooner or later, the game again will try your patience, as this pastor found out.

The golf course is a splendid place to meditate, one pastor claimed. He became so good at meditating, that he entered the local golf tournament. In the opening round, when his turn arrived, he expertly placed his ball on the tee, confidently moved his club into position, began his swing ... and the caddie sneezed. His concentration and confidence shaken, he topped the ball miserably and it dribbled only a few feet from the tee. Clenching his fist and biting his lip and glaring at the embarrassed caddie, the pastor maintained silence and refrained from saying a word. Whereupon his opponent said to him, Reverend, that is the most profane silence I have ever heard.

Peace and Grace,
Brother Paul

AN UPDATE FROM UMCOR

Friends,
Thank you for your gifts to the United Methodist Committee on Relief. As you know, 100% of your dollars are being used to help people directly.
From Oct. 10th through 19th, there will be an online event unlike anything you have experienced. It is called "10-Fold". Through live webcasts, streaming video, online chats and other media you will see and hear about ministries and missionaries that are changing lives. The first day, Oct. 10, will feature work being done in Haiti after the devastating earthquake.
You may visit www.10-Fold.org to learn more. For every person who signs up as an advocate for a project on 10-Fold, $1 will be donated for each project, up to $10,000 per project. Check out www.10-Fold.org for details and see first-hand what is being accomplished in Haiti and around the world.

THANK YOU

Many thanks to Bruce Hughes for his "cool" gift of a refrigerator for the kitchen.

MAKING PREPARATIONS FOR THE FALL FESTIVAL

The next planning session is Oct. 10, at 12:15, with lunch provided. All are invited to offer their ideas and assistance for our fall Festival, to be held Oct. 30, from 8 to 2.

Read any good books lately?

Share with others those great books you've already enjoyed. Bring your used books to the Health Room at the church for the Fall Festival Book Sale or call Barbara for pick-up, 746-8949.

GOING PLACES!

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Love has no boundaries.
Are you an instrument of love in this world?

UMW NEWS

Please welcome back into our fold a former UMW president, Miki Craft, and if you are not a member, please consider joining us. September is "thank you" month from Aleda: Thanks to all who made it possible for us to get certificates at District Annual Meeting; to all who took part in our own UMW Sunday and contributed the many, many items for the Golden Cross Ministry; to Selena Henson for her informative and inspiring message; to all new and returning officers, and congrats to Rebeca for being elected District Treasurer; to Perri for the beautiful front page of our scrapbook; (please look through this year's and past years books in the UMW Room); to Brother Paul for so efficiently leading the first session of our study on the Epistles of John; and to whoever was responsible for my receiving a beautiful pin with a sapphire setting. I have never been so surprised and humbled.

Now, we prepare for a busy October: Children's Sabbath on Oct. 10, led by Aleita Tutor, (one of our "musts" to be a platinum unit); Executive Meeting on Oct. 17 to set 2011 goals and budget; and the Oct. 23 meeting to set tentative 2011 programs, and the information from each subgroup for the 2011 yearbook.

If you want your yearbook sent by e-mail, let Renee know, rwlittlepd@yahoo.com or 737-9899.

We have so much to be thankful for and feel God is blessing our Unit.

Gratefully,
Aleda Kelly
