FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

Scriptures for April 6: Psalm 130; Romans 8:6-11

Sermon: "Life in the Spirit"

I pray for you...
You with happy hearts, that they will be blest to stay that way.
You with lonely hearts, that they will be touched by a smile.
You with empty hearts, that they will experience the fullness of God's love.
Pray for me.

I pray for you...
You who enjoy good health, that you know how blest you are.
You who are in poor health, that healing is just a prayer away.
You who care for others, that you know you are cared for by God.
Pray for me.

I pray for you...
You who make good decisions, that you will be blest by them.
You who make wrong decisions, that you find the courage to make them right.
You whose power to make decisions has been taken away, that you know God is with you.
Pray for me.

I pray for you...
You who have fulfilling and satisfying jobs, that you will be blest to keep them.
You who are unhappy in your work, that you can be thankful to have work.
You who have no job, that you will triumph in your difficulties.
Pray for me.

I pray for you...
Children of our heavenly Father, that we may all live and love, learn and grow... together.
Brothers and sisters in Christ, that we may share compassion and tolerance...together.
Family of God, that fear and despair will be shattered and we will know God's peace...together.
Pray for me.
