THE WRITE REVEREND

When I was in college, I worked part-time as a one of two "repo" men at a Goodyear Store (The other repo guy was my roommate!). One semester I worked full-time at the store and when we were not out collecting and repossessing stuff, I worked with the store's mechanic.

He was a smart guy and taught me things I have never forgotten. Not only things about cars, but about business and about life. I still have many of the books he gave me.

Among them was one by Napoleon Hill titled "Think and Grow Rich." There was a poem in it by an unknown author that has been with me all these years and whenever I think of it, I think of the man who helped me find it. I wish to share it with you:

I bargained with life for a penny,
And life would pay no more.
How ere I cried at evening tide
When I counted my scanty store.
For life is just and employer,
It gives you what you ask.
But once you have set the wages,
Then you must bear the task.
I bargained with life for a menial's hire,
Only to learn dismayed,
That any wage I had asked of life,
Life would have willingly paid.

As advocates for social justice, United Methodist Women continue to work for the rights of those exploited by this cruel trade and to end this all too prevalent form of modern day slavery. Join us on August 10, at 12:15p for a light lunch and to hear our guest speaker, Carol A. Wiley, B.A.C., Director of Victim Assistance for the "A Way Out" Victim Assistance Program. This event is open to men and women, and we encourage you to bring a friend or two with you. Please consider bringing supply items to assist the women and children who are in the "A Way Out" program: hand dish washing soap, liquid laundry detergent, paper towels or baby wipes. Thanks!

Candle Burning

The Candle Burning Program is one of the ways our UMW Unit supports missions and outreach and a wonderful way to honor special people. Your gifts may be in celebration of something special or in honor or memory of loved ones. Each and every one will be remembered in prayer on UMW/UMM Sunday. Please give your gifts and names of those to be honored ($5 minimum per name, please) to Margaret Ann Ligon.
