THE WRITE REVEREND

Yesterday, after church, I went to pick up an ice cream cake I had ordered at the Baskin Robbins store on Winchester, just east of Riverdale (read shameless plug!). When I walked in, there was something special about the place.

An older Asian man offered me assistance and when he showed me the cake I had ordered, I realized it was too small and he, his wife and I began looking at alternatives. We quickly worked something out and he got the cake ready for me while I waited. His wife took payment and he carried my order to my car for me, as I was busy with the waffle cone of praline pecan I had gotten just because (I mean I was in Baskin Robbins!).

But I cannot wait to get back there! While the service was great, it was more than just the service. There was an atmosphere about the place. But it was more than that. You could see in the way they worked together how much this husband and wife loved each other. They not only invited you into their store, they invited you into their world.

Jesus said that the church should be like that: "By this will everyone know that you are my disciples: that you love one another."

Who wouldn't be drawn to a church like that!

Herbert

THANK YOU

Our thanks to Rebeca, Lisa, Cathy, Mary, Ed, Judy, Barry, Wilson and Tommy, who helped with all the projects at church: cleaning the library out, moving the UMW Room, cutting the hedges, spraying the parking lot, cutting and edging the grass, painting, and meeting the techs to repair the A/C and the organ. They have all been busy little beavers, even though one of those beavers was a little near-sighted. Your help is invaluable!
